Joint Operational Programme Romania – Ukraine 2014 – 2020

Corrigenda to Guidelines for Hard and Soft Projects

The Managing Authority of the Joint Operational Programme Romania – Ukraine 2014-2020 published the Corrigenda to the Guidelines for Hard and Soft Projects, referring to the definition of the infrastructure, indicative eligible activities, project's contribution to the Programme and supporting documents. Together with the Corrigenda, optimized versions of the Application form (including budget, logical framework) and Annexes have been published on the web-site of the Programme at <http://ro-ua.net/en/about-the-programme/calls-for-proposals.html>

Functionality of the application form has been optimized

Considering the difficulties notified by several potential applicants when downloading the application form for the Joint Operational Programme Romania-Ukraine 2014-2020, the functionality of the form has been optimized. The optimized document has been published on the programme's website and can be downloaded from the Calls for proposals section at <http://www.ro-ua.net/en/about-the-programme/calls-for-proposals.html> or from EMS-ENI electronic application system. The applicants who downloaded the form by March 30, 2018 are kindly requested to access and use the optimized version from EMS-ENI electronic system, Version 2.5.

The Joint Operational Programme Romania-Ukraine 2014-2020 is funded by the European Union through the European Neighborhood Instrument (ENI). The Programme is dedicated to the border areas between Romania and Ukraine and will contribute to the overall objective of the European Neighborhood Instrument: progress towards an area of prosperity and good neighborliness for the benefit of Member States and non-EU members through cross-border cooperation actions.
